I can't believe she actually managed to make it on her first try.

well she was riding a glider when we first met.

She has quite some powerful
hidden things...

Didan

Why do the forces
want the position of the Reyners so badly?

Is it because they want power of the dragon pearl?

as long as
these are living
beings, they will continue to observe
this power

But what did she mean when she said
that my choice could determine the fate of her race?

However,
she came to such a conclusion?

A long time ago,
before I came to
serve Lord Kusakabe,

see for yourself

since you got pulled in last...

I need to get under the lake.

What is she thinking, going
under the table...

This is an indication of the presence of a pure, stable dragon pearl that has left the protection of its barrier.

This line-around
all of the offspring
